TOP THREE PLACES LOOK SETTLED

Big scores were the order of the day last Sunday as the wet weather continued to effect the games.

Melville out on top of the ladder enhanced their position with a demoralizing win over Swan Valley in both League and Reserves games. Melville have an all round depth as well as experience and look firm favourites for the flag. On Sunday it was the brilliance of Geoff Truscott who kicked well in the forward line combining well with his other forwards to completely destroy the Swan Valley's hard working back line.

Southern Port continued with their good form by outpointing Mosman Park and coach Gary Greer has the team playing well and challenging for top position on the ladder.

Cockburn after swamping a luckless Midland now have a bye before facing an improving Belmont at Forster Park. This is one game they should not take too lightly as Belmont can be a danger, especially on their home ground.

Today Mosman Park will beat Swan Valley, Southern Port Hamilton will be too good for Belmont and Melville will continue their unbeaten run at the expense of Midland.

MELVILLE SHOW THEIR STRENGTH IN ALL GRADES

Melville Social Notes

Well the Colts managed to secure another four points, however we are sure Kim and the boys would much prefer it when they actually got onto the ground to play a game. Stick together fella's, as steps are being taken at board level of the League to remedy the situation. The boys are to be commended as prior to the game they were 90% sure that Swan Valley could not field a side, however the Melville boys were all in attendance.

With respect of the Reserves, "Dad's Army" is progressing well on young legs. Great to see Ray (Junior Max) Stewart return to the playing field with a best on ground performance. Troy Renouf also gets a mention for a very "cheeky" game. We all look forward to Nipper and the boys continuing on a winning note and further strengthening our clubs within the competition.

The League side are to be congratulated once again for a strong win considering the conditions. After a slow start, the boys finished off well. Johnny Tame put in a great game after returning from injury - well done Johnny. Noel (putty nose) Cooper rucked tirelessly all day, without once needing to fall down for a rest. Geoff "Nipper" Truscott contracted leather poisoning after having kicked seven goals. We are sure it could have been more, conditions better.

Remember fella's - total commitment for four quarters is a must, as there are a number of Reserves players chaffing at the bit. Well done again and lets make this year the year of the Ram.....

Belmont Social Notes

BELMONT COACH ALL SMILES AFTER GOOD WIN

Last weeks game showed a great improvement in teamwork for the Reserves. In the goal kicking spree the Meikle brothers kicked 12 goals between them. The 'Puddin' with 7 and Ginge with 5'. A good game from all players had the coach smiling at the end of the game.

Best players were John Polmear who played a great game in the Centre, Peter Saviak dominated the ruck and took marks all around the ground, topping it off with two goals. 'Puddin' with his seven and Ross Patriaca who was solid in defence, were also in the best.

Captain Andy Meyers started off brilliantly again but had to leave the ground with a pulled hamstring mid-way through the game. Snowy also had to leave the ground just after he started to fire at full forward. Final score Belmont 33.22 to Midland 1.8. The next game will be tougher against Southern Port-Hamilton.

In the league game a very slow start from the team who started to get it together after half-time, and went on to win by three goals.

Eddie Hoyer played a useful game and ended up with seven goals. Dave Sims played well on his wing and Brad Harper played an excellent game from the back-flank.

Don't forget all guys wanting to go on the trip at the end of the season are to put in their $2.00 each game.
